Indigenous Students’ Practical Legal Training Scholarship

Award conditions

1. Introduction
The ANU College of Law in conjunction with the National Centre for Indigenous Studies (NCIS) have developed a scholarship program to offer up to two Scholarships per year for full-time or part-time study in the Graduate Diploma of Legal Practice (GDLP) within the Master of Legal Practice, offered by the ANU Legal Workshop.

2. Eligibility
Scholarship applicants must be Indigenous Australians and meet the admission requirements of the Master of Legal Practice (MLP).

The Scholarship will pay the tuition fee for the program for a total of 48 units of coursework for completion of the Admission to Practice courses. Please note this does not include the Student Amenities Fee. For further information relating to the fee please read the information on the ANU website:

4. Duration
The scholarship will apply for the duration of the award program.

5. Conditions
The scholarship applies only to the 48 units of Admission to Practice (LEGW) courses undertaken as part of the Master of Legal Practice (MLP). If the applicant decides to not exit the MLP with a Graduate Diploma of Legal Practice (GDLP) they are liable for all other course work fees within the MLP.

6. Application process
Scholarship applicants should apply on the attached form and should include a covering letter indicating their interest in being considered for the scholarship and making the case for being granted one by demonstrating how the scholarship will assist them to develop personally and professionally. The covering letter, together with the application form, referee report, and program application (or acceptance documentation from the ANU Legal Workshop if available) will be considered as the full application for the scholarship.

7. Criteria for award of scholarship
Applicants must demonstrate how the scholarship will assist their personal and professional development. The Selection Committee may take into account the applicant’s academic record, other achievements, and, if relevant, personal circumstances.

8. Closing date for applications
The closing date for applications for the Master of Legal Practice (MLP) will be listed each year on the ANU College of Law webpage:

9. Decision
The decision to award a scholarship is made by the ANU Legal Workshop Indigenous Student Scholarship Selection Committee, the composition of which is determined by the Dean of the College and includes the Director of ANU Legal Workshop, the Director of the National Centre for Indigenous Studies and the Head of the Jabal Centre, or their nominees.

The Chair of the Scholarship Committee has the casting vote should such a decision be required.

10. Notification
The Scholarship Selection Committee will notify the outcome to applicants in a timely manner.

11. Take-up date
The Indigenous Students’ Practical Legal Training Scholarship applies from the start date indicated in the offer of admission letter to the program. The Scholarship cannot normally be deferred. The Scholarship may be awarded after the student commences studies.

12. Continuation of the scholarship
The continuation of the scholarship will be subject to the scholar passing all courses. If a scholar fails a course within the Program the scholarship may be terminated at the discretion of the prescribed authority.

13. Program and scholarship leave of absence (suspension)
Suspension of the scholarship, after the scholar has enrolled, may be approved in special circumstances, and where leave of absence from the program has also been approved, in accordance with University rules.

14. Repayment – under certain circumstances
If the scholarship is suspended or terminated the Scholarship Selection Committee shall take into account the information available and shall determine whether any refund of scholarship monies is payable by the student and may determine that the refund for the semester in which the suspension or termination occurred be in part or in full.
